

Historic Tours in Charming Old Town Cottonwood

Karen Leff, accomplished tour guide, ghost whisperer, local historian and story teller provides education and entertainment in the Bootleg Capital of Arizona of the 1920's and 1930's.

Step into the past~

- Heritage Speakeasy, Bootleggers Run Historic Tour
- Heritage Walk with Art & Wine Tour
- Rare Riparian Verde River Greenway Tour packaged with breakfast, lunch, and wine tasting
- And the new Paranormal Tour.....

Ghosts, Blood in Wine & Death By Chocolate

DESCRIPTION:

Interactive ghost hunt and walk through the haunted jail and buildings on Main Street in Cottonwood Arizona's Commercial Historic District. Come and take a chance of an encounter with the spirits, apparitions and orb activity in Old Town. Karen Leff, accomplished tour guide, ghost whisperer, local historian and story teller will entertain you with REAL paranormal and unexplained stories and testing with ghost meters to detect any anomalies that may take place, shall go undetected... A sampling of death by chocolate, paired with blood in wine, haunted by flavor, will satisfy your palate along the way.

Don't leave your camera behind, as chances are strong in capturing orbs at most locations. Starts at the historic Cottonwood Hotel with lecture and tour (approx. 40 min. or more) at this location, then proceeds to other locations and the old jail and grounds.

$12 per person/ $20 per couple

For Information and Reservations:

Contact

Karen J. Leff (Owner/Innkeeper)

Cottonwood Hotel

930 N. Main Street

Cottonwood, AZ 86326

PH 928-634-9455 Office/Voice

PH 928-202-2207 Direct eMail: karen@cottonwoodhotel.com

webSite(s): www.cottonwoodhotel.com

